General Guidelines

- All work must be for sale.
- All work must be framed, or gallery wrapped. No sawtooth or clip hangers. All work must be properly wired and ready for hanging. Work not ready for hanging or display will not be accepted.
- All work must be labeled clearly on the back. Work must be completed in the last three years.
- QArts Gallery reserves the right to refuse any work deemed unsuitable for a family friendly audience.
- Any work purchased may be removed from the exhibition at the time of sale. A replacement would be permitted. The buyer has the option to pick up their purchase when the show closes.
- Payment to artists will occur no later than Jan. 15, less the 30% gallery commission.

The Quincy Art Association and the QArts Gallery is held harmless in the event of loss. It is further acknowledged that any exhibiting artist may or may not choose to provide insurance coverage applicable to the exhibiting of registered works. By submitting your registration, you accept these terms.

Volunteering at the QArts Gallery

Please be reminded that the QArts Gallery is operated and managed solely by volunteers. As a QAA member exhibiting in the gallery, we will ask you at drop-off, to sign up to gallery sit during the exhibition. Check your calendar in advance so you'll be prepared when asked. A minimum of 3-5 hours is requested. If we're not open, we can't sell your work.
